Treasury of the United States,

Washington, March 21, 1885.

Sir:

I send you this day, by registered mail, one standard silver dollar, discovered where it leaves no doubt that it was the one reported "short" in my letter of the 14th instant, in remittance of $50,000, received from you on that day, and which you made good by forwarding out this office on the 19th instant. Regretting the occurrence, I am

Respectfully yr

Treasurer U.S.

Hon. A. Loudon Snowden,
Superintendent U.S. Mint.
Philadelphia, Pa.

Thanks –
